MESSAGE FROM SUPERVISOR MCKAY

Proposed Budget Reflects Fragile Economy

The County Executive recently released his proposed budget and it is, in a word—boring. In this economic climate, boring is good. But then a lot has changed over the past few years as we've come to realize that Fairfax County is not immune to the economic headwinds that have battered the national and state economies. While this barebones budget is boring, it illustrates the county's ongoing financial prudence and good management. While surrounding jurisdictions are wrestling with large deficits, deep program cuts and increased taxes, we are holding the line. We've taken the prudent approach over the past several years of holding funds in reserve at budget carryover to plan for budget requirements in the following fiscal year.

The County Executive's proposed budget for the FY2012 fiscal year that begins on July 1, reflects the fragile economic improvements of the past several months. It's fiscally responsible. (Note that this is not the final budget. My colleagues on the Board and I will do an in depth review and listen carefully to our residents' priorities before adopting the final budget on April 26.)

Some of the highlights of this proposed budget are:

- The residential property tax rate remains at $1.09 per $100 of assessed value. It's my hope that the approved rate can be reduced.
- There are no cuts to code compliance, public safety, human services, or to parks and libraries.
- There is no restoration of previous cuts.
- County employee salaries are frozen for the third consecutive year.

You can find more detailed information on the budget at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/dmb/.

Our citizens have high expectations for their local government, the services it provides, and the quality of those services. Please let me know what is important to you by calling my office at 703-971-6262 or sending an e-mail to Leedist@fairfaxcounty.gov.

To testify at a budget public hearing, contact the Office of the Clerk to the Board at 703-324-3151 to put your name on the speakers list. You can also sign up online at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/bosclerk/speaker\_bos.htm. Public hearings will take place in the board auditorium of the Fairfax County Government Center on March 29, 30, and 31.

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

Turn Good Will Into Action

www.fairfaxcounty.gov/police/stations/franconia/

I would like to thank all of you for what you do. I have been overwhelmed with the support I have received from the community. Now I need to turn this good will into action. If you received this listserve message, you are probably already doing what I suggest.

Please grab hold of your neighbors and remind them of the following things:

1. The most prevalent crime in the Franconia District is larcenies from vehicles through unlocked doors. Please! Lock your doors.
2. Another prevalent crime is larcenies from vehicles in which valuables are left in view. The thieves break the window and steal the item. Please! Take your valuables inside.
3. The most likely way that these thieves will get caught is when an alert citizen calls the police. We come to the location and catch them in the act. Please! Call in suspicious activity or persons.

I finally have someone doing my Weekly Summary Reports. Look for those to start again soon.

MPO Jim Reid
Crime Prevention Officer

Major DeBoard Selected as Deputy Chief of Police

I am pleased to announce my selection of Major Maggie DeBoard as Deputy Chief of Police, with an effective date of Saturday, February 12. I held off on the announcement the past week or so out of respect for Second Lieutenant Mark Payton and his family and friends. She will be assigned as Deputy Chief of Police for Investigations and Operations Support.

We are blessed to have high caliber persons serving across our Department, and promotional selections are always difficult because of the breadth and depth of talent we have. I'm certain all will join me though in congratulating Major DeBoard and supporting her as she transitions.

Thank you,

Colonel Dave Rohrer
Chief of Police
Franconia Police Station, February 8, 2011

Register Now for March 15, Statewide Tornado Drill

The next Statewide Tornado Drill will take place Tuesday, March 15, at 9:45 a.m. The date also is Tornado Preparedness Day. (If widespread severe weather threatens the state on that date, the drill will be rescheduled for Wednesday, March 16, at 9:45 a.m.)

This is an important statewide safety event. Last year was the most successful tornado drill ever with more than 1.2 million people across the state participating.

For help in planning a tornado drill for your location, contact the Fairfax County Office of Emergency Management at (571) 350-1000, TTY 711. You also can visit www.vaemergency.com/threats/tornado for information and to register your participation.

Northern Virginia Hazard Mitigation Plan

<http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/oem/nova-draft-hazard-mitigation-plan.pdf>

The 2011 Northern Virginia Hazard Mitigation Plan Update is now available for public review and comment. The plan incorporates mitigation projects for Fairfax County and the towns of Vienna, Clifton, and Herndon. Please e-mail any comments to oem@fairfaxcounty.gov.

Pre-Disaster Recovery Plan Survey

<http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/stakeholderPDRPsurvey>

Fairfax County, led by the Office of Emergency Management, has begun development of a Pre-Disaster Recovery Plan supported by a Department of Homeland Security Urban Areas Security Initiative (UASI) grant. The county hopes that area businesses, nonprofits and faith-based organizations will play a part in this important planning effort.

Please add your voice and your input! The Fairfax County Office of Emergency Management invites you to participate in a Stakeholder/ Public Survey to support the development of the Pre-Disaster Recovery Plan. It will allow government to support the private and non-profit sectors as everyone works together to restore Fairfax County. The Stakeholder/ Public Survey is intended for non-profit groups or for-profit firms that could directly apply their capabilities to recovery, as well as for the general public.

For 2011 election information, go online to www.fairfaxcounty.gov/eb/.

Primary Elections: August 23, 2011

Primaries for offices elected in November are customarily held on the second Tuesday in June. This year, due to redistricting changes,* the primaries will take place on Tuesday, August 23.**

*In April 2010, the U.S. Census Bureau conducted the national decennial census and released detailed population data relating to Virginia in February 2011. The 2010 Census data will be used to reapportion representation in the United States House of Representatives, state legislatures, and local elected governing bodies—a process commonly referred to as redistricting. Additional information regarding redistricting can be found at: <http://dlsGIS.state.va.us/>.

**The General Assembly passed legislation (H 1507) which changed the 2011 primary date from Tuesday, June 14, 2011 to Tuesday, August 23, 2011.

General Election: November 8, 2011

To elect members to the Virginia Senate, the House of Delegates, Soil and Water commissioners, the Commonwealth's Attorney, the Sheriff, and members of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, and the Fairfax County School Board.

ADDENDUM...in the news

Kingstowne Ponds

January 19, 2011—"Last September, a dam in the Kingstowne ponds was busted by heavy rains, and caused one pond and part of another to drain away. The five basins making up the ponds were part of a former gravel pit operation that had developed into a wildlife habitat and attraction for Kingstowne residents. The county has been working to stabilize and evaluate the site...."
